

Academic Support

TA and Instructor Office Hours:

- Need help with a class? Please make an appointment to talk to your instructor or supervisor or make use of their office hours. Your instructors and TA's are here to help you learn!
- Beginning in AY18-19 Spring, BCS will also be offering tutoring to students in subject 9.40. Please contact Theresa Tomic in the BCS Academic Office (theresal@mit.edu) if you are interested in receiving tutoring, or becoming a tutor.
- Tutoring resources are also available at MIT
<http://uaap.mit.edu/tutoring-support/tutoring-options-services>

Academic Integrity

- Fundamental to the academic work you do at MIT is an expectation that you will make choices that reflect integrity and responsible behavior. Please take some time to review the Do's and Don't's in the academic integrity handbook for students
- Handbook available for download at <http://integrity.mit.edu>

Career ideas /post-MIT plans

- Need career advice, help with finding an internship, or considering graduate school? The Global Education and Career Development Office (GECD) has a variety of resources available to students. Take advantage of their walk-in hours if you would like to speak with a representative from their office directly <https://gecd.mit.edu/>
- Are you Pre-Med? Make it a point to schedule a Pre-health advising meeting
<https://gecd.mit.edu/grad-and-med-school/prepare-medical-school/meet-prehealth-advising>

Student Support Services (S3)

- Student Support Services (S3) is a friendly and easily accessible hub of support for MIT students. The S3 deans work with undergraduates on a variety of issues, including both personal and academic concerns. If you are facing a personal or academic difficulty, or a combination of both, don't hesitate to be in touch with their office.
<http://studentlife.mit.edu/s3>

Office of Minority Education (OME)

- Are you looking for support, opportunities for mentorship, encouragement and programs focused on under-represented minority students? The OME is open to all students and you are encouraged to visit <http://ome.mit.edu/> for more information. The OME also sponsors the Talented Scholars Resource room (TSR^2),

Resources for Students

9/2020

LGBTQ+ Resources @MIT

- Looking for LGBTQ+ resources and/or support in and around the MIT community? Please visit <http://lbgt.mit.edu/> for a wide range of information on the online Lavender Guide, the events calendar, monthly newsletter and the Rainbow Lounge and more.

Disability and Access Services

- Do you need accommodations or assistance? MIT makes every reasonable effort to provide appropriate accommodations and assistance to students with disabilities (as required under the Americans with Disabilities Act [ADA] of 1990 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973). Please visit Student Disability services at <http://studentlife.mit.edu/sds>.

General MIT Student Resources

- For a one-stop place where you can find a broad range of MIT resources and information from experiential learning opportunities and health, to student life and more, we encourage you to visit Student Resources for Living and Learning at <https://resources.mit.edu>.

MIT Ombuds Office

- Are you in need of an independent, neutral 3rd party to help navigate a difficult conversation, conflict, or concern? If so the MIT Ombuds Office can assist with problem solving and strategies related to interpersonal relationships, safety issues, policy clarification, or any challenge that impacts your work/study/life at MIT. Please feel free to explore their range of services at <https://ombudsoffice.mit.edu/>

Have additional questions or need help connecting to other resources on campus? Contact Theresa Tomic, our Senior Undergraduate Program Administrator in BCS HQ, 46-2005L, or email to theresal@mit.edu.